

Fund Established For Family Of Seizure Victim

A charitable fund has been set up to help with the medical expenses of Sarah Jane Smith, daughter of Sandy and David Smith of Crestwood.

On March 28, Sarah suffered a five-hour seizure that left her on a ventilator with serious lung complications and damage to her temporal lobes and other parts of her brain. She is currently in the PICU of Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital.

Sarah is now beginning to show signs of cerebral palsy. She has not yet awakened and remains heavily sedated. Prognosis and recovery is not known at this time.

Both Sandy and David Smith are self-employed, and time from work and medical expenses have been costly. To assist in relieving this burden, Ability Network has established a trust fund for Sarah.

To make a donation, make checks payable to Sarah Jane Smith Charitable Trust Account, Allegiant Bank, 7801 Forsyth Blvd., Clayton, Mo., 63105. If a financial gift is not possible, the family would appreciate prayers for Sarah.
